*Denotes State Playoff game

Compiling a 12-0 record, the F.H.S. football team became the only team in the history of the state to ever win 12 games in a single season.

The multi-talented team was Mid State conference champs and captured the Group III State Championship. The successful season marks the best football squad ever at Franklin. Seniors, Darin Roberts and Anthony Gorell were all-State selections. Roberts threw for a state record, 28 touchdowns. In addition, he became the all-time passer in New Jersey history with a total of 2,686 yards. Gorell caught passes for over 1,000 yards.

Tony Bolton and Lester Hardley provided the running game for the Warriors. Phil Barnes joined Gorell to make up a strong aerial attack.

Pat McGovern, Mike Cruse, Roger Cotrell, and Bruce Cortelyou made up a strong defensive line. Clayton Jackson and David Anderson filled the linebacker positions. Kevin Harris teamed with Roberts to form a tough secondary unit.

Coach Len Rivers was named Star Ledger Coach of the Year. Rivers and his staff built a football powerhouse that will be remembered by Warrior fans.

The F.H.S. J.V. football team had its best season ever as it posted a 5-3 record. Jeff Newsome, Max Berry, Kenyatta Jones, Tom Robinson, and Kevin Spencer all played key roles in the team's success.

Coach Foster points out that J.V. football allows future Varsity players to gain experience.

Foster feels that these group of fine individuals will be able to continue the winning tradition at F.H.S.

The Franklin High School "Lady Warriors" pursued an exciting season with the final records of 22-1 in the conference and 22-2 in the states. This super group of athletes was led to victory under the guidance of Coach Sandy Sanchez, and Senior Co-Captains, Helene DeVries and Jill Morrison. Coach Sanchez was named Coach of the Year by the Trenton Times.

Sophomore sensation Kristina Szep used tournament experience to have a personal record of 19-2. She was named a part of the All-Star Siv Suburban Team. Senior, Jill Morrison filed the second singles spot and had a super season with the final record of 18-3. Jill received an honorable mention at the Mid-State Conference. Senior, Kristen Pallay, showed much determination in her playing this season. She finished the season with a record of 20-1. Her fine playing at the third singles spot, led her to receive a position on the All-Star Team. The first doubles team of Seniors, Helene DeVries and D Kathy Rogan used a combined effort to have a proud record of 20-1. The pair was named a part of the All-Suburban team and the All-Star Team. The girls worked very hard to have a fun and successful season. The second doubles pair of "The Sisters" had a great record of 20-1. Pam and Sandy Friedberg worked together on the corq so court to be honored with the title of Group III third team, and the girls were also named a part of the Mid-State All-Star Team. The JV Team had the advantage of a new Coach this year. Paula Kimbal added a great deal of help and encouragement to all of the team members. The JV team lended much support to the Varsity players. The team worked very hard to improve the skills that are needed to play a varsity match. The Varsity and JV teams and Coaches were honored by the Community on December 11, 1984 for their sportsmanship and excellence on and off of the court. The teams celebrated the end of this great season with a special dinner.

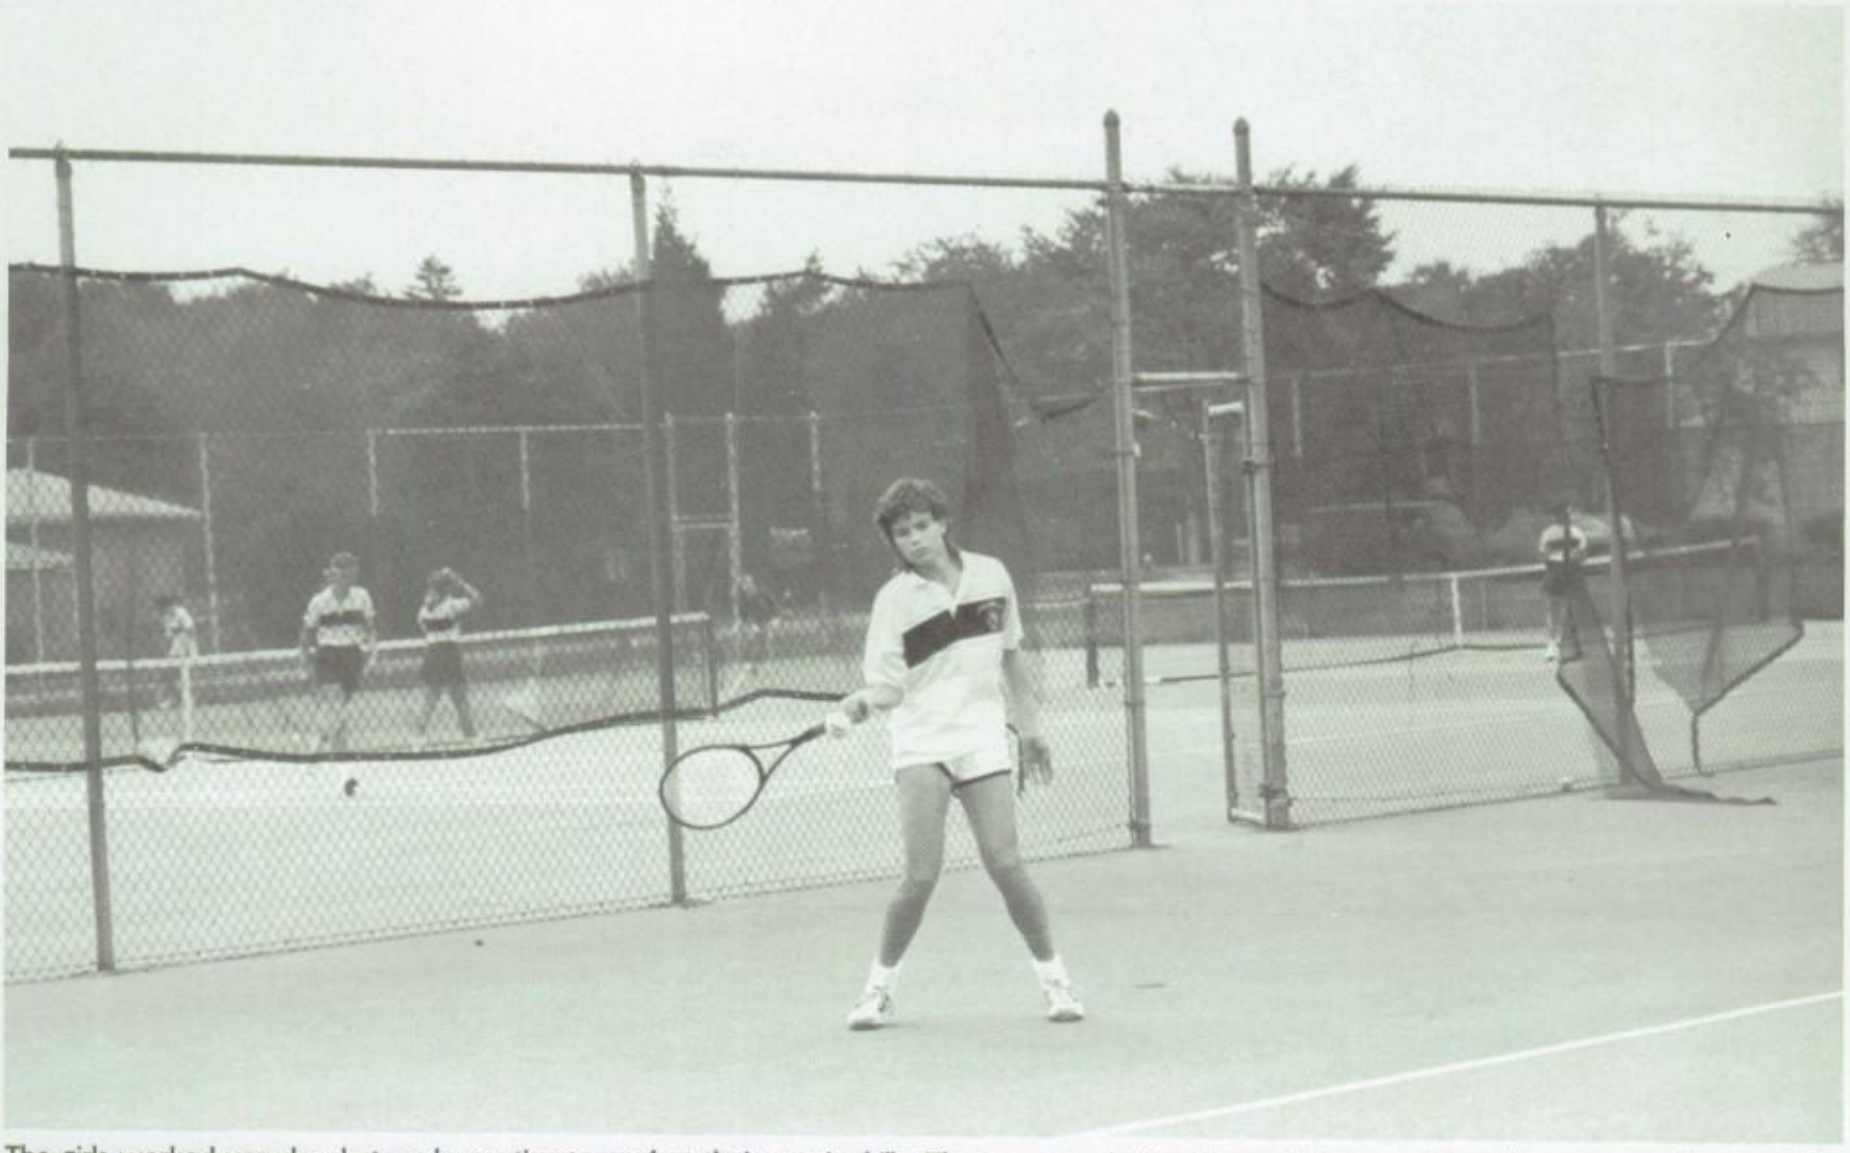
One of the many highlights of the winning season for "The Lady Warriors" was the breaking of Watchung Hills 91 game winning streak. The cake was only a small part of the celebration. The team and school was very excited.



The girls worked very hard at each practice to perfect their tennis skills. The warm up before the matches, as pictured is an essential part of the practice.

In Pursuit of That Elusive Ball.

Coach Dennis Lau braved the 1984 Soccer season with a deal of inexperience due to graduation. The team played with a great deal of enthusiasm every game. Seniors on this years team were: Hyeop Cha, Mitch Garbow, Steve Mesulam, Eric Tupler, Azuka Moma, Mike Epstein, Bruce McCraken, and Nicki Mendola.

Returning for the Warriors will be Juniors Steve Woodburn, Jim Drennan, and Sophomore goalie Chris Williams.

In Pursuit For the Future. Coach Greg Varga hopes that the experience gained by all of the J.V. soccer players will be helpful in building the Franklin soccer program. He knows that only through the continuing interest shown by the younger players will Franklin once again be competitive. Among the key players for the Junior Warriors were Ed Abrams, Mike Spitzer, Mark Friedenberger, Rich Lang, and Freshman Goalie Bill Slackman. These players, and all of the soccer players, thank you for your support this season.

In Pursuit of Flying Feet.

The 1984 cross country team had a record of 7-3. The boy's team was led by: Owen Tarantino, Anthony Oliva, Mario Jara, Jeff Fenske and Joe Kreuszer.

Coach Tom Volz feels optimistic that the experience gained this season will be helpful for the returning trackmen. Franklin has always been well coached and well represented in cross country.

Injuries Pursue Lady Runners

The Lady Warriors finished the season with 5 wins and 5 losses. Injuries plagued the team during the season. The team did well and mpeted with the same determination, as all teams coached by Mr. Horne have, at Franklin High School. Members of the team were nya Robinson, Ines Mayorga, Karen Rossler, Mary Hamilton, Cheryl Harris, Ann Kruezek, Yvonne Singleton, Jule Genovese, Michele arks, and Karen Strick.

Field Hockey

This year's field hockey team had an up and down season, ending with 7 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. Seniors, Jodi Junta, Jen Cox, Karen Prather, Pat Sas, Mary Ellen Hauss, Janel Powell, Sue Thomas, Wendy McCuen, and Lolita Jackson, led the lady Warriors attack. They were helped by juniors Judy Hauss, Sue Moynihan, Carol Bacon, Janet Engelhart, Elise McDevitt, and Mariselle Gonzalez. These girls will hopefully continue the success of Franklin field hockey next season.

JV Has a Tough Season

The struggling Junior Varsity team finished with a 4-9 record. Co-Captains were Jennifer Hayes and their record does not com pletely reflect their season; 6 games were lost by only one goal. The team lacked experience but some players obtained varsity ex perience and will be a good asset to the future varsity team.

Freshmen Finish 0-10-1

This season was a very disappointing one for the freshman field hockey players. Through hard work and dedication the team gained a lot of experience that will pay off next year. Co-Captains were Teri Tupler and Jennifer Rosster.

In Pursuit of Grace and Form

The Lady Gymnasts were led by Senior Co-Captains Melanie Rutty and Cindy Mascia. The team began the season with a team c inexperienced gymnasts, but finished the season with a group of seasoned veterans. We can look forward to a great season nex year. Coach Digilio again demonstrated her coaching ability and teaching.

The Franklin High School Varsity boys basketball team had another tremendous season as they posted an impressive 23-3 record. Darin Roberts and Anthony Gorell made up the quick, well shooting back court as Steve Scott and Phil Barnes were consistently effective under the boards. Jan Alford played the small forward position. Scott proved to be one of the top big men in the conference as he outplayed all opponents. Gorell was selected to play in the North-South All-Star Game. Senior, Dave Williams came off the bench to run the offense. In addition, Jeff Newsome, Sylvester Thompson, Matt Robinson, Mike Cruise, and Kevin Harris all contributed.

Two of the Warriors losses came in the county finals to Immaculata and the Central Group III finals to Colonia. The squad revenged a State playoff loss in 1984 as they easily defeated Ewing in a regular season contest.

Despite the loss of four starters, the Warriors will look to younger players to uphold the fine basketball image.

JV

The 1985 J.V. Team was led by Ed Daniels, Lamar Fair, Anthony Boykins, Shawn Logan and Brian Coffaro. Also contributing to an excellent season were: Joe Pesce, Glen Gadson, Charles Edwards, Kelly Doyle, Orlando Ashford, Derrick Lennard, and Robert Winstead.

The 1984-85 team was always ready to meet all challenges. And usually came to play.

JV Wrestling '84 and '85

The Warrior Junior Varsity Grapplers compiled a team record of 3-5-1 this year. They relied heavily on the leadership and talent of returning letter winners Joe Lambert, Rob Wheelan, Captain Ray Harris, Dave Rowe, and John Peterson. In addition the wrestling program at FHS has a very bright future with eight frosh wrestlers rounding out the line-up. This year's squad showed an exciting combination of quickness and aggressiveness and improved with each dual meet.

The 1984-85 Lady Warriors finished their season with a record of (6-13). Janel Powell and Patti Sas, the two senior members of th squad provided the leadership qualities. Both had varsity experience and were able to work with the younger players. Powell an Janette Cartlidge did a consistent job under the boards. Rosie Maher and Judy Hauss came off the bench to provide good defensiv skills. With a loss to Myra Ellison to graduation it was necessary for the Warriors to find a new scorer. Junior Liz Massey stepped in t fill the role effectively. Massey finished the 10th leading scorer in Somerset County with a 15 point average. John Foster and Myr Mitchell coached the Lady Warriors.

Winter Track

Coached by Mr. Volz the boys winter track team completed another successful season. Seniors Jeff Fenshe, Mario Jara, Owen Tarintino, Rick Broadnax, and Tony Bolton helped make it a success. The highpoint of the season came when Andrew Miller, placed 3rd in the high jump at the group 3 meet with a leap of 6 feet 6 inches. Ronnie Varbow also placed 3rd in the 55 meter dash.

The girls also did well this season. They were led by returning runners Michelle Starks and Kelli Watkins in 55 meter hurdles, Michelle and Lorraine Jarret in the 55 meter dash, Cheryl Harris in the 400 meter run and Soyna Robin in the 800 meter run.

The hot air was filled with spirit and pride a students, teachers and administrators clad in blu and gold attended the September Pep Rall After the cheerleaders' routine to "et's Hear For The Boys," athletic director Pat Dolan, senic class president Patricia Sanders and the tea captains introduced players and coaches for th 1984 Fall Sports Season.

Everybody Loves a Picnic . . .

The hot air was filled with spirit and pride as students, teachers and administrators clad in blue and gold attended the September Pep Rally. After the cheerleaders' routine to "Let's Hear It For The Boys," Athletic Director Pat Dolan, Senior Class President Patricia Sanders and the team captains introduced players and coaches for the 1984 Fall Sports Season.

The seniors unite (top left) on the picnic grounds. Kevin Beckford (top right) observes the action, while a group of friends (above) relax and listen to music. Mike Pulver and Don Neal (left) cool off at the water pump and Chris Meserole (right) enjoys the sun.

Joyce McCarthy and Susan Indri step aside to chat in the midst of 'punk' music.

Junior Nora Breen peeks through her shades.

Senior Debbie Cuddy goes to meet a friend.

'Punk Funk' Dance

Leather, chains, painted and spiked hair, and slam-dancing filled the FHS cafeteria at this popular September dance. With music by John DiRienzo, students had a fun-filled Friday night.

Seniors Karen Miller, Christy Else, and Margaret Lawrence "hang out" as punks.

Halloween 1984 . . .

Sandy Hayes and Debbie Carlsen smile as Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum.

Freshmen Teri Tupler and Sandy Friedberg enjoy their first FHS Halloween experience.

COSTUME CONTEST HIGHLIGHTS DANCE

Sponsored by the Senior and Junior Executive Councils, the roaring Halloween Dance culminated in the awarding of costume prizes. Winners were Debbie Carlsen, Kim Dempsey, Allison DiBiasi, Laurel Dittmar, Mary Hamilton, Sandy Hayes, Heather Hill, Christine Kilgore, Deirdre Lee, Ines Mayorga, Scott McCall, Azuka Momah, Phil Phillipuk, and Susan Schubert.

Music and Marching Skills "Strike Up the Band"

Drum cadences and marching melodies of this award-winning band were heard not only at football games, but at numerous competitions and festivals. Participation in the West Windsor and East Brunswick EMBA Championships, the Home News Band Festival, State Band festival, and more kept the group more than busy.

Under the leadership of directors Cal Chase, Fred Oltarzewski, head majorette Christy Else, major Brian Brown, majorette Edith Sawchak, flag captains Karen Miller and Edna Babbitt, and drum line captain Danny Bonham, the band ended a successful season by participating in the "Musicale Mexico" band festival in Mexico during Easter vacation.

Council Officers Lead Underclassmen

Freshman Council

In their first year at FHS, the officers worked on various fundraisers including a carnation sale on Valentine's Day. In order to boost spirit and unity, they ordered class T-shirts.

Officers:
Kim Lathan, President
Kim Williams, Vice-President
Tisa Smith, Secretary
Gwenn Gerken, Treasurer
Advisor: Mrs. Fraser

Sophomore Council

Fundraising and extensive student in-olvement were the main concerns of the ophomore Class officers. Under the uidance of Vivi Jackson, they worked ard to ensure a successful and fun school ear for their fellow classmates.

Officers:
arva Waddell, President
orene Lynch, Vice-President

Juniors Stress School Spirit

The Junior Council: Advisor Richard Sapala, Nancy Fittipaldi, Orlando Ashford, Carrie Camastra, Jim Barrood

Officers:
Orlando Ashford, President
Jim Barrood, Vice-president
Carrie Camastra, Treasurer
Nancy Fittipaldi, Secretary

These junior leaders have "looked ahead to next year" and have participated in numerous fund-raisers such as selling Christmas ornaments and kazoos.

More importantly, however, was their effort to boost school spirit and unify the entire class. By planning a Junior Class Trip and a Junior Prom, they were able to get many students involved.

Seniors Make Their Last Year the Best

Under the guidance of Stephen Foster, the senior leaders undertook a variety of jobs to make the last year of high school enjoyable for everyone. In addition to various types of fund-raisers, such as the popular Cookie Pies, they strove to continuously maintain and increase senior privileges in the lounge and throughout the school.

By sponsoring dances and numerous "Spirit Days," such as Blue and Gold Day and Sunglasses Day, they generated school spirit and unity. The class picnic, Senior Prom, and Yearbook Signing Dinner allowed the seniors to assemble as a class and make memories.

The Senior Council: Tracey Walker, Alan Davidson, Lolita Jackson, Christine Kilgore.

Student Journalists Strive to Inform

The Beacon Staff, composed of Mrs. Fama's Journalism I and II classes, reported on a multitude of school issues, concerns, and prides. Under the leadership of Editors-in-Chief Lisa Berkowitz and Christine Kilgore, they produced a newspaper issue every month. By raising money throughout the year, they attended the annual Columbia Press Conference in New York City.

Memories Are Captured . . .

Cooperation and collaboration are the key words in the creation of a yearbook. Layout, photography, writing and business are all important to the overall production.

With the direction of Joe Fosko, the editors and staff hoped to have captured the fun and memories of high school in a specia volume.

Students Learn History First-Hand

A group of history buffs take a break during one of their field trips.

For 32 history-lovers involved in Patricia Matuszewski's Independent Study program, learning extends beyond the classroom and involves first-hand experience. Through reading materials, group seminars, field trips and guest speakers, students study such topics as historic preservation and world development. Frequent trips to Princeton as well as Philadelphia have expanded upon the concepts learned during the after-school meetings.

These students, while on a field trip, explore places and topics not covered in the classroom.

Deanna Muzzy looks on.

Caprice Cosgrove, Anthony Oliva, Britt Lacher, Eileen Mayberry and Orlando Ashford find the outdoors refreshing.

History Club

The 30 members of the History Club meet every other week and spend time discussing historical events and places. The club traveled to Philadelphia and Trenton and participated in the World Hunger Fund. The students meet and work under the guidance of Patricia Matuszewski and Jeanette Juhasz.

Officers:
Darren Klem, President
Owen Tarantino, Vice-President
Abbe Abboa-Offei, Secretary

Math League

While some students cringe at the mention of logarithms, algebraic equations, and gemometric series, the 16 FHS Math League members test their skills regularly by taking various competitive exams. The group takes the Central Jersey Math League exams, the monthly N.J. Math League exams, the annual American High School Math exam, and the Association of Math Teachers of N.J. exam.

Top scorer Alan Davidson has led the team through many meets and has scored several perfect scores.

Academic League

The 29 members of the Academic League meet weekly under the guidance of Don Neal and Patricia Matuszewski. They participate in practice games similar to Trivial Pursuit, which prepares them for competition. The matches, which occur every Thursday during a season from December to March, last about an hour.

Officers:
Alan Skoultchi, President

Electronics Club

Peter Patel prepares his circuit board.

Jeff Watkins works after school while his friend looks on.

This club, which meets weekly, undertook a major project – the building of a robot. Each member was assigned a specific section on which to work, such as the power supply circuit board, and the main drive circuit board. Under the instruction of Robert McEwen, the students designed and solved problems.

Officers:
John Tsinetakes, President
Jeff Watkins, Vice-president
Mario Jara, Secretary
Phil Moss, Treasurer

Members of the Electronics Club: Front – Jeff Morehouse, Sue Zaretskie, John Tsinetakes, Ben Weintraub. Back – Jeff Watkins, Tom Notarianni, Mario Jara, Peter Patel.

Key Club

Membes of the FHS Key Club

Members of the Key club, a school and commun service organization, participated in The Hunger Proje the Volleyball Marathon for the Mentally Handicappe and the Salvation Army Christmas Drive as well numerous other service activities. Under the guidance Dan Morley, they strove to help not only their peers, b children, elders, and the handicapped.

Lights! Camera! Action! The Video Club, advised by JoAnn Cluckies, worked hard organizing a show about high school to be broadcast on a local channel. The show, centered on happenings around the school, was student-run, student-directed, and student-written.

Teen Arts Club

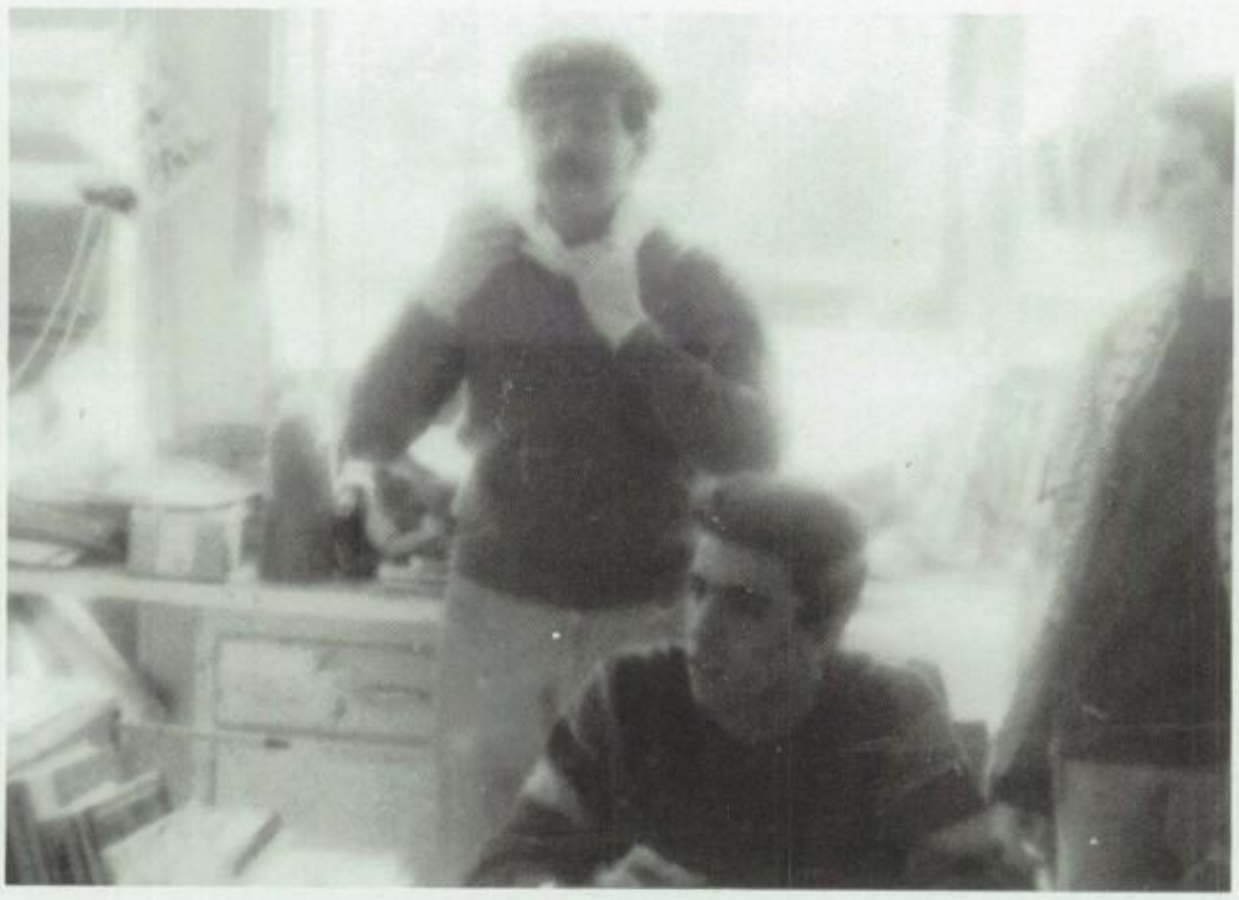
Among the various projects of the Teen Arts Club were the organization of an Art Show held outside in the community and the planning and exhibition of a Teen Arts Festival held in FHS in March. Films, skits, musical performances, and visual arts were included.



Co-Presidents:
Aaron Haba and Mark Boucher
Advisor:
Chuck Miley

Chess Club

Brett Kleinberg thinks before making a move.

Members of the Chess Club meet twice a month to "learn how to play a good game." With the help of advisor Mr. Attiyah, they learned moves and techniques in preparation for spring competitions.

Members:
Glenn Housekeeper
Ryan Zucker
Daniel Scott
Brett Kleinberg

Mr. Attiyah advises the students on wise techniques.

Industrial Arts Club

The Industrial Arts Club, under the guidance of Mr. Beckett, meets twice a month. Now in its second year at FHS, it affords students the opportunity to be involved in activities related to mechanical drawing and industrial arts. It is all individual work – the members learn drafting skills, draw, then build. Officers are Noel Croz, President; Robert Bilheimer, Vice-President; Leonard Bird, Secretary; and Robert Indri, Public Relations.

Publication Club

This club reinforces skills in the area of machine operation and graph arts. It helps raise money to keep the program operating and to he finance social events. Stationery for teachers, students and communi organizations is made to order. Members are Washburn Atyton, Marc Blakey, Hank Blocker, John Gilbert, Calvin Hosey, James Howell, Joh Peterson, James Watson, and Stephanie Whitehead. The advisor is Mr Superville.

Trainers Club

Members:
Lori Smith
Nancy Fittipaldi
Ryan Zucker
Michelle Green

Hands-on, basic training experience is beneficial to these students interested in medical-related careers. Under the guidance of Ed Fleming, they learn to feel comfortable with what they're doing by working nearly every day after school and at sports games.

Track Club

Members:
Abbe Abboa-Offei
Sonia Robinson
Cheryl Harris
Edwina Barnes
Stephanie Stevenson

The Class of '86

Spirit, enthusiasm, determination – three important words to describe this year's Junior Class.

Holding numerous fundraisers to let them enjoy a super class trip and fantastic junior prom, it can be said that the class of 1986 is in hot 'pursuit' of the best opportunities open to them at Franklin High School.

Channeling their creativeness and directing their excitement towards activities to benefit their futures is newly appointed class advisor, Rich Sapala.

"He has a willingness to work hard and an unsurmountable amount of energy that along w/his humorous antics gets us motivated to work. He wants 'everything' for us and with that kind of great attitude, you couldn't ask for a better class advisor!"

In Memory of Richard Weinberg, We, the Staff of Pursuits — 1985 Dedicate Our Collection of Rememberances

Remarks by Alan B. Davidson on the occasion of a service for Richard Weinberg
January 27, 1985

Richard Weinberg was a teacher and a riend. He was known to us at the high school s a history teacher, or a class advisor, or a oach, or simply as the man with all the spirit n our school.

I first met Mr. Weinberg almost a year and half ago as my history teacher. He had his own special style in the classroom — he could make us laugh, and make us learn through hat laughter. But when all the jokes were done, he was there for all of us. He had a unque ability to influence people, to say the ight word at the right time to help us get hrough the rough spots. He could do this because of the special relationship he had with his students; he was someone you could alk to.

Outside of the classroom, Mr. Weinberg vas a special man. To say he was involved would be an understatement; he was the heart of the spirit in our school. He could always be found supporting the school at athletic events, or running the class dances with Mrs. Weinberg, or out on the field with his softball team, or just having a good time in the middle of a shaving cream fight at the class picnic. This is the way we remember him; he seemed to delight in all the different facets of life at Franklin High School.

And Mr. Weinberg was more than personally involved; he was personally committed. It's been said that he was our football team's greatest fan; but more than that, he was Franklin High School's greatest fan. He had a belief in the spirit of the school, a belief in taking pride in the school. He was committed to making Franklin a better place for all of us.

It occurred to me that most of us at the school never really knew Mr. Weinberg when he wasn't ill. But we never thought of him that way. Through it all, he never let it get to him. When he was out of school this fall, he was still teaching us about life, and about facing our problems, and about personal courage.

In the way he dealt with his life, he taught us how to deal with his death.

That personal courage . . . that was the greatest lesson he had to teach us. Mr. Weinberg never seemed to lose hope. In the face of the greatest personal adversity he was always there for us, always giving of himself. He was our teacher, and he was our friend, and we will miss him very much.
